"S UNNY JIM" FITZSIMMONS, iorses, graduated into the stake class when Capt, Alcock won the Suburban Handicap. He never said if the horses he trained could be his luck to get real good horses to train, and so year in and year out he races and in most cases more than trainers of the so-called fushionable atables.

Complacent and satisfied as Fitz as been, taking good luck with bad. employer, the owner of the Quincy Stable, has always aspired to bigger things.

"If you stick to me," he said only recently to his trainer, "I'll make you saddle a big handleap winner."

Fitz laughed, but two days before Saturday's Suburban he began to think his time had come. He had Capt. Alcock in the best shape of his career, and when the rain of last Friday insured a heavy track he became pardonably confident.

Capt. Alcock was in the race very light at 108 pounds in view of some o his best races, and the heavy going made conditions ideal for him Jockey Ponce, who incidentally is riding it wonderful form so far this season, did the rest and put Fitz's name amoug Considering that never in his long Preer has Fitz even saddled a Subicban entry, winning at the first at-

"Capt. Nick" Houseman, the oyster king, was captured by several friends after the races Saturday and escorted to a big spread at Monquin's, it was the Captain's birthday, he being eighty-two. A wonderful character is Houseman. Hale and hearty as a man of sixty, he has selden missed a racing day since he saw his first race, over in Paterson, in the early sixties. He attributes his long life and good health to champagne and eysters, and is proud of the fact that he never took a drop of liquor until was eleven years old. Joe Mo-
